Mike A undergoes continuous dialysis

HOOKED TO A RESPIrator and fed through a tube, President Macapagal-Arroyo's husband, Jose Miguel "Mike" Arroyo, yesterday underwent continuous dialysis while under sedation after a dangerous open heart surgery from which doctors said only 5 percent of patients fully recover.

Palace moves to St. Luke's 5th floor

REFUSING TO LEAVE HER CRITically ill husband, President Macapagal-Arroyo has practically converted a P21,000-a-day suite at St. Luke's Medical Center (SLMC) in Quezon City into a little Malacañang where she holds office and gives orders to Cabinet and security officials streaming in.

ADVISORY TO ALL LAWYERS ON JUDICIAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION

The Supreme Court has recently issued guidelines on judicial dispute resolution, to enhance the role of the judge in mediating and conciliating a case. This process hopes to make the resolution of cases faster and fairer, thereby decongesting court dockets and promoting access to justice.

This procedure is now being practiced in Negros Occidental, Pampanga, Misamis Oriental, La Union, and the Baguio/ Benguet area. Contact your local Executive Judge or the Philippine Judicial Academy for more information.

Read the full text of the guidelines for Judicial Dispute Resolution here. Alternative Dispute Resolution could spell the difference in your case!!

Investing in Education, Preparing for the Future

"Our future as a city depends on how much we invest in our children's education. Our capital investment in developing the city will be of no importance if we don't give priority to education. I believe that the human mind is our primary resource in building a strong and sustainable future for the city and the people of Pasay." — Congresswoman Connie A. Dy
